

last time, I'm going to leave the lights on, for Jimmy.

Once in the car we were talking about our visions of the world to come, and I thought I would end the conversation when I said that I would probably go first because I was older, and so I would send him a report on what it was like up there. But Jimmy, as usual, had the last word.

"You never know," he said, "I might go first. And if I do, when you get to the gates, just give me a call, and I'll drive over and pick you up."

I will do that, James, and I know we'll have a lot to talk about.

The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh. Blessed be the Name of the Lord.●

HONORING OUR NATION

● Mr. LUGAR. Mr. President. I ask to print into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD a prayer delivered by Mr. Clarence Hodges, President of the North American Religious Liberty Association, on November 21, 2001, on the grounds of the United States Capitol in honor of our Nation.

The prayer follows.

AMERICA, MAY GOD SHED HIS GRACE ON THEE.
(By Clarence E. Hodges)

God bless America, land that we love. Please stand beside her and guide her with your light from above.

Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD. If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. . . . And ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you. (Lev 26:2-9)

And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant: I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror . . . and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you. (Lev 26:15-17)

I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your highways shall be desolate. (Lev 26:22)

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. (2 Chr 7:14) (King James Version)

With an attitude of gratitude, we will come closer to each other as we come closer to God. With love, we will save our children from destructive attractions. Love will serve as our motivator as we serve mankind and our Creator. Faith will overwhelm our doubts and fears. The spirit of humility will balance our competitiveness. Patience will fortify our discipline. Excellence and a desire to serve others will be intertwined in our ambitions. Tolerance will replace our prejudice and opinionation. We will stand strong for religious freedom with accommodation in the workplace. And the best America possible will be our dream of dreams. We will rid the land of those who are dedicated to evil acts against mankind. We will not tire. We will not falter. And we will not fail. Now let's roll, with liberty and justice for all.●

COMMENDING DURAND MIDDLE SCHOOL'S INVEST IN AMERICA PLAN

● Ms. STABENOW. Mr. President, I rise today to commend the students of Durand Middle School in Durand, MI, for showing the kind of spirit that will get our nation through the economic aftershocks of September 11.

When the attack of September 11 sent our airline industry into an economic tailspin, the students of Durand Middle School created the Invest in America Project to show their faith in the travel and transportation industries.

Under the Invest in America project, families across the Nation were encouraged to buy at least one share of stock in the transportation or travel company of their choice.

The students believed this would show the world that we have faith in our economy and that Americans are ready to travel again.

Given the fact that the travel and tourism industry is worth about $93 billion to our economy, renewed confidence in the industry by both investors and consumers is important.

This project will also give the students and their families valuable firsthand experience in how the stock market works.

I hope you will all join me in wishing these students good luck with their investments and thank them for their show of confidence in our economy.●

HONORING TERESA POOLE

● Mr. BOND. Mr. President, I rise today to honor the service of one of my staff members, Teresa Poole, who works in my Springfield District Office in Missouri. On January 3, 2002, Teresa will celebrate her 25th anniversary of working for the Senate. When Teresa started her career, Senator STROM THURMOND was a mere 74 years old. Teresa has worked for three U.S. Senators during her career. She began working for Senator John Danforth's office in 1977 until he retired in 1993. In 1987 she started working with my office and continues that service today. When John Ashcroft came to the Senate in 1995, Teresa worked for both of our offices until 2001 when Ashcroft became Attorney General of the United States.

When I look back at Teresa's career two words come to mind, commitment and loyalty.

For the past 25 years Teresa has been committed to handling the entire military academy nomination process for this office. Teresa has set a high standard for this process and fields numerous calls from other congressional offices throughout the State and country when they have questions about academy nominations. Teresa is committed to helping students who are interested in military careers receive all the information they need to complete their applications, and spends hours each week answering questions from parents and applicants about their files. Teresa loves to make those phone calls informing individuals of their acceptance into the various service academies.

For the past 25 years Teresa has been loyal to the Senators she has served and the constituents they represent. Teresa has worked tirelessly on behalf of each of us ensuring that our positions are known and communicated in an accurate and precise manner. Teresa is a true public servant and a faithful and constant part of this Senate office. Attorney General John Ashcroft said, "Congratulations are in order for Teresa Poole, who has served 25 years as staff in the U.S. Senate. Mrs. Poole was a great help to me during my 6 years in the Senate. My wife, Janet and I wish her all the best as she celebrates this milestone in her life."

It is an honor for me to join with my staff in Washington, DC, and in the great State of Missouri to recognize Teresa Poole for the 25 years of distinguished service to the people of Missouri and three U.S. Senators.●

HONORING JOHN O'CONNOR

● Mr. KERRY. Mr. President, all of us in Massachusetts continue to mourn the loss of one of our State's most passionate, committed, and effective activists, John O'Connor, who died on Friday, December 7. John brought an enthusiasm and commitment to civic life that inspired everyone around him. His legendary appetite for life was bound by a steady moral compass, one that envisioned a world where water, air and land are free of pollution and every individual, from all walks of life, has access to the full measure of the American Dream.

After John disclosed the fact that a small baseball field in his neighborhood of Stratford, CT, was actually built on the waste site of asbestos manufacturer Raybestos, he embarked on a journey that spanned from the fight to clean up sites like it all across the country to advocating for universal health care. That early spark of environmental awareness proved to be a model for all the struggles he engaged in throughout his life. As a young graduate of Clark University, he organized the poor neighborhoods of Worcester so that they could have a stronger voice in their community's policies, and joined up with Massachusetts Fair Share, a grassroots group that was pursuing the same goal statewide. His humor and enthusiasm gained traction in the group's newsletter, The Squeaky Wheel, as well as the street organizing
